

CHD (EDAC) Examination Retake Policy:

Individuals who do not pass the certification examination may retest 60 days after each testing attempt, with up to three testing attempts within the 366-day eligibility period (from the day of initial candidate application).

Individuals who do not pass the certification examination will automatically be emailed a new Notice to Schedule (NTS) after a 60-day waiting period (from the day you took your last examination).

Individuals will then be able to pay the $255.00 Retake examination fee and schedule their examination. A confirmation email with your examination Date, Location and time will then be sent to candidates via email.
