WEBINAR

5 Ways to Use Classroom Testing to Combat Unfinished Learning

SCANTRON Snapshot™

Introductions

Mary Michael Pontzer
Vice President, Portfolio Management

Tim Butterfield
Director of K12 Partnerships

SCANTRON®

SMART STARTS HERE

With more than 50 years in the assessment industry, Scantron is a proven and experienced market leader providing comprehensive assessment solutions and services.

85+

Countries and 50 states make up Scantron's global presence where solutions are delivered and customers are supported.

Delivering at Scale

18 Billion +

Assessments Provided

- K-12 and Higher Education
- Certification & Licensure
- Corporate / Government

What Is Classroom Assessment?

Purpose:	Learning
Frequency:	Daily
Creation Process:	Simple
Standards Alignment:	Suggested
Implemented By:	Instructor
Proctored:	Rarely
Item Security:	Low
	LOW STAKES

Why Is Classroom Assessment More Important Than Ever?

- Unfinished learning
- Unique student needs
- Evidence-based activities
- Distance and in-person learning

Five Ways To Use Classroom Testing to Combat Unfinished Learning

- Identify Individual Needs
- Personalize Assessment
- Increase Engagement
- Tap Into Metacognition
- Address Specific Standards and Skills

Identify
Individual
Needs

Personalize
Assessment

Increase Engagement

Tap into Metacognition

Address Specific Standards and Skills

Introducing…

SCANTRON Snapshot™

Supports Digital, Print, and Hybrid

Promotes active learning

Gives teachers choice

Built-in tools for reliability and validity measures

Teacher-driven Assessment Tool

- Any assessment, subject, grade
- Multimedia & technology enhanced items
- Autoscoring, standards aligned reporting
- Assessment management & reporting

Easy-to-Use

- Built-in item and assessment bank
- Upload/import existing tests
- Create and share items and assessments
- Fully cloud-based, use any device

Uniquely Student-Centric

- Student confidence, answer justification
- Student reflection
- Personalized learning resources

Learn
More
SCANTRON
Snapshot™